

Nashville Union.

FRIDAY MORNING, DEC. 18, 1863.

Who should drop into our sanctum yesterday but H. D. PALMER, of pleasant memory. Hundreds of the old citizens of Nashville will remember him as the agent of the Italian Opera Troupe of Madame DeVries, who delighted brilliant audiences some years ago at the Old Theatre; and later still, as the agent of the world-renowned THALBERG, the first pianist of the age. Palmer comes now to introduce the loveliest woman and most accomplished actress and vocalist on the American stage—VETVAL. His numerous friends will be glad to clasp his hand again, and thank him for his thoughtfulness in providing for their entertainment.

EMILY THORNE'S benefit and last appearance but one—New Nashville Theatre.

AMUSEMENTS.

THEATRE—Miss Jane Combs has a benefit at the theatre to-night, it being her last appearance—but one. The entertainments are "The Wife's Secret" and "The Honey-moon," in both of which she appears.

Mr. Edwin Adams, a tragedian, makes his first appearance Monday night.

Mr. Flynn, one of the Managers, returned home Wednesday night from a visit to Cincinnati. We understand that he and David had leased the theatre at Lexington, Ky., and will open it next month. Success to their enterprise.

The Cincinnati Commercial of the 15th publishes the following letter. The proof was accepted:

To the Committee on Dramatic and Operatic Entertainments, Great Western Sanitary Fair:

GENTLEMEN—The undersigned, lessee of Wood's Theatre, tender a benefit to the Great Western Sanitary Fair, on next Tuesday evening, December 15th—devoting the entire gross proceeds, without any reservation whatever, to the glorious cause.

The sale of tickets for the occasion is placed under your control.

Very Respectfully,
DUFFIELD & FLYNN, Managers.
Wood's Theatre, Cin. Dec. 11, 1863.

A critic in Chicago, who has seen Combs play the French Spy, thinks she "over-dresses the part." Well, that is about all she does—over-dress. She comes very near being a "model artist."

OLD THEATRE—BENEFIT OF MISS JANE COMBS TO-NIGHT—This young, beautiful and gifted American lady, who has won such a host of admirers from the best circles in our city, and whose superior renditions have drawn the most brilliant houses of the season, is on the bill to-night for a benefit. We say to all, let the benefit be such a grand, redoubtable affair, that Miss Combs may yield to the wish so universally expressed, by consenting to remain in the city during the holidays. Glance at the attractions offered and attend.

NEW THEATRE—Miss Emily Thorne's benefit comes off to-night, on which occasion will be produced for the first time in this city, the elegant drama of "The Russian Slave," and the charming after-piece—"The Loan of a Lover." In the former, Miss Thorne appears as Salina, and in the latter as Gertrude. This is an excellent bill.

Miss Thorne's engagement is now drawing to a close. It has been a profitable one, notwithstanding the large proportion of inclement weather encountered, and she has greatly endeared herself to our play-going population. Her benefit to-night will be one of the greatest triumphs of her life.

The Russian Slave to-night.

The attention of merchants of Nashville is directed to the Special Notice of Dr. A. Fuller, Esq., Assistant Special Agent of the Treasury, which will be found in this morning's Union. The rules and regulations of the Treasury Department must be obeyed.

See the great play at the New Theatre to-night.

The weather yesterday was cold and cloudy. The heavy rains of Wednesday night washed away much of the mud on the streets, but still there was enough to make walking unpleasant.

We frequently receive communications without a responsible name accompanying them. These are seldom read, and never published. Correspondents will bear this in mind.

See the new play at the New Theatre to-night.

The passenger train from Louisville, due at 6 P. M., had not arrived when we closed our forms last night. It was detained, we were informed, by a freight train which was off the track.

Excellent benefit of Miss Thorne to-night.

Special Notice to Merchants.

Assistant Special Agent,
Nashville, Dec. 18, 1863.

Merchants in this city are notified that it is a violation of their bonds to sell goods to any one for the purpose of resale, unless the party purchasing produces a certificate from a Local Special Agent of the Treasury Department, stating that he is authorized to keep a Trade Store at some point where Trade Stores are allowed in conformity to Treasury Regulations. Any violation of this notice will subject the offenders to a revocation of their Trade Authority and a forfeiture of their bonds.

PRIVATE DISEASES.

Dr. Ludlum's Specific

Is the only reliable remedy for diseases of the organs of generation. It is the discovery of an eminent Physician whom life was devoted to the treatment of this class of disease, and with unprecedented success, for more than twenty years. It is perfectly inoffensive, requiring no medicine, and differing entirely from the mistaken practice and the enormous worthless compounds offered to the public. It is entirely vegetable and perfectly safe. It acts like a charm, and imparts strength and vigor to the diseased organs.

Caution.—The great success of this remedy in curing permanent cases has led to its being imitated and "counterfeit" medicine, and the public are cautioned that the name of the proprietor is around each box. Beware of imitations. Prepared only by

W. M. F. DAVIDSON, Cincinnati, O.
